

MCV Hospitals and Physicians

Department of Surgery Grand Rounds

February, 2008

7:00 – 8:00 am

George Ben Johnston Auditorium

- Feb. 7      General Surgery Faculty Meeting – NO CME OFFERED
- Feb. 14      Multi-Disciplinary Med/Surg Conference
Stephanie A. Call, MD, Program Director of VCU Internal Medicine Residency,
Associate Professor of Medicine, Virginia Commonwealth University
Brian J. Kaplan, MD, Program Director of VCU General Surgery Residency
Associate Professor of Surgery, Virginia Commonwealth University
At the conclusion of this activity, participants should be able to:
- 1) Review complexities of caring for patients with diagnosis of SBO.
  - 2) Outline unique challenges in coordinating multi-disciplinary care.
  - 3) Identify key issues to maximize team effectiveness and safety in patient care.
- Feb. 21      “The Disruptive Physician: A Cautionary Tale”
John A. Russell, M.D., Clinical Professor of Psychiatry
Virginia Commonwealth University
At the conclusion of this activity, participants should be able to:
- 1) Explain factors which influence physician behavior and potential consequences of disruptive behavior.
  - 2) Identify resources to assist in addressing disruptive behavior.
  - 3) Outline measures to address inappropriate behavior in peers.
- Feb. 28      “New Horizons in Aortic Surgery”
Derek R. Brinster, M.D., Assistant Professor, Division of Cardiothoracic Surgery
Virginia Commonwealth University
At the conclusion of this activity, participants should be able to:
- 1) Review pathology and terminology of aortic disease.
  - 2) List current treatments for aortic pathologies.
  - 3) Identify new techniques and treatment options.

The Virginia Commonwealth University School of Medicine, (VCU) is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

VCU designates this educational activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Physicians may claim up to 1 hour in Type 1 or Type 2 CME on the Virginia Board of Medicine Continued Competency and Assessment Form required for renewal of an active medical license.

Virginia Commonwealth University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action institution providing access to education and employment without regard to age, race, color, national origin, gender, religion, sexual orientation, veteran's status, political affiliation or disability. If special accommodations need to be made, please contact the Department of Surgery at 804-828-7874.